Calypso Corp puts a focus on mega-yacht cruises. Unique atmosphere, French sophistication, modern design inspired by the luxurious world of cruising, interior - all this creates a unique style of mega-yachts.

On board there are 2 gourmet restaurants, a library, a beauty salon, a theater, a play area and a boutique with premium products.

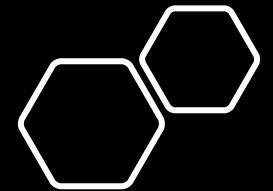

Just like on luxury trains, large mega-yachts have online ordering service for premium goods.

The big point is that on those mega yachts you will go to destination itineraries that are not suitable for ships, and it all comes with the luxury and atmosphere of a “private yacht”. Holidays on a yacht can not be called massive. There are not many tourists on board (around 200-264). Everything is designed in such a way that passengers get the impression that they are traveling on their own ship, surrounded by close friends and brands.

When the mega yacht anchors off the coast of another piece of paradise, passengers can do jet ski, scooter, kayak, water banana, snorkel, as well as a unique capsule to experience the underwater world. Particular attention is being paid to ice-class mega yachts for expedition cruises to Antarctica. Each passenger receives personal warm parka jackets, boots and other equipment. The mega yacht has 2 helicopters and a submarine on board, the use of which significantly expands the horizons that were previously inaccessible to ordinary travelers.

During the pandemic, there were no cruises and train travel was canceled. Calypso Corp and our cruise's partners decided not to lose contact with our customers and provided the opportunity to order any premium class products through our catalogs that we sent to our clients by email. After lock downs in Australia and Oceania were lifted at the end of 2021, response in traveling is being monitored and overcompensation is expected. In February 2022 Calypso Corp was already supplying 3 mega yachts in Oceania.
